

I make daily personal use of the HF spectrum as a licensed Amateur Radio Operator. My particular interests are in public service/emergency communications in support of the Red Cross and other groups and low power HF equipment design and operation. Both of these applications would be impacted by the use of PLC technology in its current form. Critical government and military communications are also be at risk. Every effort should be made to reduce interference to licensed users from this equipment.